

Pathologist-in-Training Travel Awards

Ten Travel Awards Now Available!

The USCAP Foundation is extending the opportunity for 10 residents and fellows to attend the 2016 USCAP Annual Meeting with the Pathologist-in-Training Travel Awards. Each award will provide a resident pathologist $1,000 to help offset travel costs and encourage attendance at the 105th Annual Meeting in Seattle, WA from March 12-18, 2016.

The Pathologist-in-Training Travel Awards will be prioritized according to the following criteria:

- First Author, abstract accepted, no institutional funding, first time attendee
- First Author, abstract accepted, no institutional funding
- Other than First Author, abstract accepted, no institutional funding
- First Author, abstracted REJECTED, no institutional funding
- Economic hardship from low income countries or regions

For more information and to download a PDF application, CLICK HERE.